

Day 6 – Monday, July 25th, “Stand for Life” Legislative Rally, Begins at Noon

By Janet Douglas

Greetings fellow warriors,

Yesterday, I touched on why the Special Session may have been delayed. I pointed out several reasons and mentioned that perhaps God is giving us more time to prepare or maybe to get more boots on the ground that day. That really resonates with my spirit as I pray into this.

We know the opposing side will come out in full force. Today, I want to challenge each of us to come out. I'm inviting you, dear reader and prayer warrior, to come and pray and stand with us. I realize we can't all get to everything, but if there was ever a time that we needed to have you there, it's now.

WE NEED YOU. Many will say, “I can pray from home.” That's true. There is a difference, however, when you get your feet on the land, and you pray from that vantage point. It's key to overthrowing this demonic structure of abortion in Indiana. We need everyone to show up and be counted. On this day, July 25th, numbers will count.

I used to be one of those who said that I can pray from home. When I started praying at the Statehouse, I realized there is a greater authority when my feet are on the land.

We really do need all hands on deck. It would be great to see busses roll in from all over the state where churches would gather their congregations and pastors leading the way to stand for LIFE. Friend, this is how the opposing side wins so many things. They can get thousands to march and seem more determined than the church.

We can no longer stick our heads in the sand and ignore what's going on. If we don't rise now, our children and grandchildren are going to be controlled by what we're seeing pushed in our schools and in life. IT STARTS HERE. WE MUST STAND FOR LIFE...If not you, then who? If not now, then when? It's TIME, friends.

As I shared briefly about Saturday, June 25th, at the State Capitol and how the crowd was full of rage and hate, screaming and yelling, I continue to believe that many of them aren't even from Indiana, and I don't think half of them knew why they were marching. They were just making noise.

During prayer this morning, Holy Spirit reminded me of June 24th again and how we cannot forget what the overturning of Roe vs Wade did in the nation. I realized again that we were released from a death grip that was upon our nation and I have no doubt that it's just the beginning of what we're going to see God do.

One of the prophetic words over Indiana is that this would be a state where healing and deliverance would happen and would be a prototype for the nation. This word also mentioned that a revival would happen on college campuses. We're still contending for all these words to come to fruition. We've witnessed pockets of it but we're praying for a full-blown revival to break out.

Fast forward to July 25th, and prophetic words are coming to pass. Rabbi Curt Landry released a word in 2018 over Indiana. The word mentioned something like “there will be political rallies or rallies that are political but will turn into evangelistic outreaches.”

Personally, I don't think we should ever miss a moment and must be ready in season and out of season to be the hands, feet, and voice of Jesus. Regardless of why we think we may need to go to the Statehouse, we need to be intentional to be used by God to share His plan of salvation. We have the prime opportunity to get involved on the frontlines and we're getting to partner with Him. It's a blessing to watch it all unfold before our very eyes.

So, my thoughts on how to prepare for July 25th (at least at this point) are let's make it a real tent meeting without the tent. If you were there on June 25th, you heard what every speaker shared from the steps and each of them presented the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

It's time for the evangelist to come forth and evangelize the masses who could potentially show up. God has been taking the Church out of the four walls since 2020. I don't think we need to take it lightly that we will be with hundreds of people on July 25th that may not know Jesus as their Savior. I say let's call out the prayer warriors and the evangelists and those who can serve and stand with the young warriors and or just be there on the grounds ready for anything. We have a perfect opportunity to turn this rally into a rally for Jesus and I am convinced that Father would be so proud of His sons and daughters.

Obviously, there always has to be someone in charge and we will submit to our leader for the purpose of why we're there as One. But I also believe that God is opening up the way for you and me to be His disciples and minister to those in the crowd.

I have no doubt that if we can shift our paradigm of these rallies, we will not only accomplish their purpose, but we will see them turn into evangelistic outreaches. Let's do it!

Pray with me:

Father, we thank You again for whatever the reason is that the dates changed. We thank You because we know that it was not a surprise to You and You are still in charge.

We continue to pray for those who are on the frontlines fighting for abortion to end. We ask that You prepare them as they stand at the microphones and on the floor of the Statehouse. We thank You for going before them and paving the way for the truth to be heard.

Father, we remind You of what our Governor has publicly stated that he is for life. We ask You, Lord, to put a demand on him and his words that he will rise up and do the right thing concerning the preborn. We thank You for those who have been bold to stand for truth and we continue to ask for Your protection for them and their families in Jesus' name.

Father, we ask that You begin to speak to us all and reveal the blueprints of how to turn these rallies into a place of evangelism for the sake of the Your Kingdom. We ask that you shake us in the church and cause us to seize the moment and to show up and be a light to the crowd and draw them to us so that they may be saved.

Lord, we thank You for the prophetic words that have been released over our state and we thank You for the forerunners who have gone before us to pave the way for this very moment in time. Shift our mindset, Father! Help us to see through Your eyes that You have made a way possible to turn a rally on the Statehouse into a rally for Jesus—an evangelistic opportunity.

Father, awaken those who feel called to evangelize and bring them forth. Cause us to undergird one of the greatest tools You have revealed for such a time as this in Jesus' name. We give You all the Glory and honor for it's Yours, Father. We take no credit for what You are revealing, but we do ask that You give us the courage to stand on behalf of the church and to stand for life, and to be able to witness to those who may think differently about babies than we do. Thank You for Your mercy over this nation, Father.

Decree with me:

We decree that Your will is being done in Indiana and just as we have heard from prophets that we are hearing You, Jesus. We say YES to You again and we decree that our minds are being shifted and we are seeing the bigger picture.

You desire for us not only to stand for the preborn, but You have called us to stand for those whom You love and desire to see saved in Jesus' name. We declare as we go forth on July 25th that we will see the Kingdom of God come alive as we minister to those who are broken and hurting. We decree the same compassion that Jesus walked in, we are also walking in Jesus' name.

We decree that this is just the beginning and we will see many come to celebrate Life at the Statehouse as they come to pray and do the work as evangelists in Jesus' name.

Scripture for Day 6, Psalms 5:1–12: “Give ear to my words, O Lord, Consider my groaning. Heed the sound of my cry for help, my King and my God, For to You I pray. In the morning, O Lord, You will hear my voice; In the morning I will order my prayer to You and eagerly watch. For You are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness; No evil dwells with You. The boastful shall not stand before Your eyes; You hate all who do iniquity. You destroy those who speak falsehood; The Lord abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit. But as for me, by Your abundant lovingkindness I will enter Your house, At Your holy temple I will bow in reverence for You. O Lord, lead me in Your righteousness because of my foes; Make Your way straight before me. There is nothing reliable in what they say; Their inward part is destruction itself. Their throat is an open grave; They flatter with their tongue. Hold them guilty, O God; By their own devices let them fall! In the multitude of their transgressions thrust them out, For they are rebellious against You. But let all who take refuge in You be glad, Let them ever sing for joy; And may You shelter them, That those who love Your name may exult in You. For it is You who blesses the righteous man, O Lord, You surround him with favor as with a shield.”

All for His glory,

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- ◆ Today, State Rep John Jacob said on a radio interview that he's been told, which side has the most people engaged through emails, phones, and by showing up will determine the outcome of this Life Bill. Whatever bill passes, will likely be Indiana's approach to abortion for multiple years. In other words, our BEST OPPORTUNITY to have NO ABORTION, NO EXCEPTIONS is now! God has given us more weeks to prepare for this opportunity. To listen to John's interview, click here.
- ◆ ALSO, on Saturday, July 23rd, at 10:00 a.m., is a “Stand for Life” Rally at Planned Parenthood with State Rep. John Jacob. This could be one of the last rallies at Planned Parenthood, 8590 Georgetown Rd., Indianapolis, IN. This is a great opportunity to experience prayer and worship at the gates of hell.
